Course Offerings

Karen Berry Real Estate School conducts:

- the Broker Prelicensing Course required to qualify to take the license examination to become licensed as a real estate provisional broker in North Carolina; and
- the Postlicensing Education Program needed for a provisional broker to remove the provisional status of such license; and
- the annual Continuing Education courses needed to maintain a real estate license on active status.

Broker Prelicensing Course

Purpose of the Course

Successful completion of the Broker Prelicensing Course is generally required to qualify for the North Carolina (NC) real estate license examination and to obtain a NC real estate broker license. The primary objectives of this course are (1) to provide students with the basic knowledge and skills necessary to act as licensed real estate brokers in North Carolina in a manner that protects and serves the public interest and (2) to prepare students for the NC real estate license examination. This course may only be offered by education providers certified by the NC Real Estate Commission. At Karen Berry Real Estate School, the Broker Prelicensing Course consists of a total of 80 instructional hours, including the end-of-course examination.

After passing the Prelicensing course, a student must submit a license application to the NC Real Estate Commission to be eligible to take the license examination. License application instructions are provided in the free publication Real Estate Licensing in North Carolina (RELINC) which is available on the Commission's website at www.ncrec.gov. The minimum age requirement to obtain a real estate license in North Carolina is 18.

Course Description

Major topics addressed in the Broker Prelicensing Course include basic real estate concepts and law, property taxation, land use controls, environmental hazards, brokerage relationships and practices, real estate contracts, real estate financing, closing a real estate sale transaction, real property valuation, property insurance basics, fair housing laws, landlord and tenant, property management, federal income taxation of real estate, basic construction, basic real estate investment, North Carolina Real Estate License Law and Commission Rules, and Trust Account Guidelines. Real estate mathematics is an important component of this course and calculations will be required.

End-of-Course Exam

The end-of-course exam will be administered in the following two manners:

- 1- Unless otherwise agreed prior to test day, The end-of-course exam for In-Person or synchronous students within 45 minute travel distance from the school will be taking as a written exam administered at the school location, 3610 S College Rd, Unit E Wilmington, NC 28412 on the last scheduled day of class. You will not be allowed to bring any documents or items including your phones into the school on test day, except a basic calculator. Test sessions will be recorded and monitored by the instructor.
- 2- Unless otherwise agreed prior to test day, Karen Berry Real Estate School Asynchronous or Synchronous students outside the 45 minute travel distance to the school will need to schedule their end of course exam through PSI. There will be $15 fee for the required online test proctoring through PSI. The student will be provided PSI contact information and test access codes upon completion of the course. Student will not need any technology other than what was needed for your course. Students will not be allowed to open any documents, tabs or applications on their computer during the testing session, other than their computer driven DOS calculator. Students will also NOT be able to leave the room nor camera range, have others in the room, answer phones, be on their phones, or any action other than taking the test. Students will be allowed a white board to use as one would use scratch paper. The board will need to be shown to the computer camera both sides erased and cleaned prior to beginning and at the end of testing. Any student may take onsite testing if student prefers. Date and time must be agreed upon no later than the last day of class.

Per Rule 58H .0207(a), a course must be completed (including successful passing of the initial end-of-course exam and/or the retake) and a completion certificate must be provided within 180 days of course enrollment. This is most important on all self-paced distance courses. Courses cannot be extended past the noted 180 days.

An end-of-course exam will not be administered to any student who does not satisfy the course attendance requirement. Students are not permitted to bring laptops, tablets, cell phones, or similar electronic devices (other than a basic calculator) into the testing site on the day of an exam. Any student who brings such a device into the testing site on the day of an exam will be required to remove it before the exam begins.

Missed Exams for In-Person, Synchronous, and Blended Courses

Karen Berry Real Estate School WILL allow a Broker Prelicensing Course student who does not take the initial end-of-course exam as scheduled to take a makeup exam one time within 30 days of the last scheduled day of the course at a time and date stated by the Education Provider.

Failed Exams

Karen Berry Real Estate School WILL allow a Broker Prelicensing Course student who takes but does not pass the initial end-of-course exam to retake the end-of-course exam one time; however all retakes must be completed within 30 days of the last scheduled day of the course at a time and date stated by the Education Provider. To be eligible for a retake, the student must make at least a 60% on the initial end-of-course exam. An In-Person or a Synchronous -Zoom Prelicensing course student who does not pass the end-of-course exam within 30 days of the last scheduled day of the course must retake the entire course to be entitled to take the end-of-course exam again. All minimum requirements that applied to the original course, including attendance requirements, will apply to a retake of the course. At Karen Berry Real Estate School, a student may retake an IN-PERSON or Synchronous Broker Prelicensing Course for $200, as long as student made at least a 50% on the initial end-of-course exam. The time and date would be scheduled by KBRES and the course retake should be taken within 6 months of the last scheduled class of the original course. Asynchronous, at our own pace students retaking an asynchronous course will receive no discount.

Eligibility Requirements for Course Completion Certificate

To successfully complete the Broker Prelicensing Course and receive a course completion certificate, a student must:

- a) meet attendance requirements,
- b) timely submit completed in-class and take-home assignments, and

Broker Postlicensing Education Courses

Purpose of the Postlicensing Program

The primary objective of Postlicensing Education Program is to provide instruction at a level beyond that provided in the Broker Prelicensing Course on topics deemed to be of special importance to licensees.

Per General Statute 93A-4(a1), provisional brokers must complete, within eighteen (18) months following initial licensure, a postlicensing education program consisting of ninety (90) hours of instruction in subjects determined by the Commission in order to retain eligibility to actively engage in real estate brokerage.

The Postlicensing program consists of three 30-hour courses prescribed by the NC Real Estate Commission that may be taken in any sequence. Be aware that a postlicensing course will expire two (2) years after its completion date. When a provisional broker has timely completed all three (3) courses, the provisional status of the broker's license will be automatically terminated by the NC Real Estate Commission.

Course Descriptions

Post 301 - Brokerage Relationships and Responsibilities

Topics addressed in this course include a review of agency relationships in real estate residential and commercial sales and commercial property management transactions, a real estate broker's legal duties to clients and customers, a step-by-step review and discussion of the functions and responsibilities of a real estate broker when working with sellers and buyers, a review of issues associated with transactions in progress when a broker leaves a firm, and a review of license status and education issues.

Post 302 - Contracts and Closing

Topics addressed in this course include selected basic contract law concepts, real estate sales contract preparation, sales contract procedures, buyer's due diligence, closing procedures, Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act, closing disclosure preparation, contracts for deed, options, and selected real estate license status and education issues.

Post 303 - NC Law, Rules, and Legal Concepts

Topics addressed in this course include general NC licensing requirements, brokerage compensation issues, the disciplinary process, specialized types of real estate, property management in NC, and miscellaneous laws and legal concepts.

Course Materials

Each student is required to use and have immediate access to the current editions of the NC Real Estate Manual and North Carolina License Law and Commission Rules booklet during each Postlicensing course session.

Karen Berry Real Estate School DOES allow a student to use the online versions of the NC Real Estate Manual and NC License Law & Commission Rules booklet during classes. Students may purchase online version from NCREC.gov under the Publications tab. Hard copy books may be purchased from NCREC.gov or the school. For more information see tuition.

End-of-Course Exams

Students enrolled in a rescheduled or cancelled course will be given a minimum 24 hours notice of the cancellation or revised course schedule. In the event of inclement weather or area emergencies, KBRES follows the lead of local county schools. Rescheduled classes will be made up, as soon as possible, by adding classes to the initially scheduled final date unless a better option is available.

If a course is cancelled or rescheduled, students will have the following options: receive a full refund or their funds can be credited to a future class.

Withdrawals and Transfers / Refunds

A student may withdraw from a course by giving written notice to the Education Provider prior to the start of the course. In such event, the student will have the following options:

- 1) to receive a refund less a $50 admin/doc fee for books and materials or
- 2) their funds can be credited to a future class, as long as, the course is taken within nine months.

A student who terminates enrollment in a course either without written notice or agreement to and from the School or by no longer attending a course on or after day three of the Prelicensing course or after day one of any Postlicensing course or during a CE Course will not be entitled to a refund of any portion of paid Tuition. Any student who terminates in writing or agreement after the course deadlines or fails the course due to attendance or test grades, will be able to retake the course at a discounted price, as long as, the course is taken within the next six months. The discount rate for the prelicensing class is $200.00 and the postlicensing course in $100.00.

Inclement Weather

In the event of inclement weather or a local or national emergency, KBRES follows the lead of the local County School systems. Any rescheduled classes due to weather or other emergency will be added to the end of class. The teacher may coordinate with the students on a better time for the class. Should a course be cancelled, the student will receive a full refund or the opportunity to take another class within the next 9 months.

Course Schedules

Course schedules are published separately from this bulletin. Schedules are posted on the School's website K-BRES.com and are also available at the School and upon request.

Use of Technology in the Classroom

Karen Berry Real Estate School is not responsible for lost or stolen electronic devices.

Karen Berry Real Estate School DOES provide wireless Internet access at the school location. If wireless Internet access is provided, Karen Berry Real Estate School is not responsible for disruptions in or problems with the service.

Karen Berry Real Estate School DOES NOT allow the use of laptops, tablets, and similar devices in the classroom unless the student is using the online version of NC Real Estate Manual for the post licensing classes. They will only be able to use the devices in the Post Courses provided they do not distract from the learning environment and they following the guidelines noted below.

When devices are permitted, the following guidelines will be enforced:

Students may use electronic devices to enhance their learning, including taking notes, researching class topics, or viewing the on-line version of the NC Real Estate Manual. Sending personal emails/texts, shopping online, visiting social networking sites, playing games or other device actions not dealing with the current class discussion that are considered to be disruptions and are not acceptable student conduct. If an instructor discovers that a student is using an electronic device for these (or similar) purposes, student will receive one warning. If after being warned or reminded of student's violation(s), the student continues to even appear to be doing disruptive behavior, KBRES can immediately deny the student the ability to use any device in class. Student will then be required to purchase the current NC Real Estate Manual to complete the course.

If the wireless Internet access is disrupted during a Postlicensing Education course, Karen Berry Real Estate School will provide a printed copy of the NC Real Estate Manual to any student who had been using the online subscription. The loaned NC Real Estate Manual must be returned at the end of the session. A student who fails to return a loaned NC Real Estate Manual will need to purchase the manual at the $57 rate from KBRES before being able to take the final exam.

Instructors, at their discretion, may designate times during which students may and may not use their electronic devices during class sessions. If an instructor has directed students to discontinue use of electronic devices, all students must put away their devices immediately. If a student does not follow an instructor's direction to discontinue use, KBRES can immediately deny the student the ability to use any device in class. Student will then be required to purchase the current NC Real Estate Manual to complete the course.

- Sound on electronic devices must be muted during class sessions.
- The possession and use of electronic devices (other than a basic calculator) is strictly prohibited during all quizzes and exams.

Student Conduct

Students are expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner regardless if they are in person in the classroom or online via Zoom. Dismissal without recourse will be imposed for behavior that, in the sole judgment of instructor or staff, reflects negatively on Karen Berry Real Estate School, is deemed to be harmful to others, is unrelated to course discussion or disrupts class time or instruction for the other students. Some Examples of Prohibited Conduct include sleeping, reading materials other than course materials including phones, performing office work, carrying on a conversation with another student, making or receiving calls, emails or texts, spending class time on tech devices outside of classroom assigned activities, making or taking phone calls, loudly rattling or shifting of papers, or repeatedly interrupting and/or challenging, typing excessively or reading emails, etc. distracting the instructor in a manner that disrupts the teaching of the course. Students must be attentive to classroom instruction both in person and online via zoom and refrain from activities that may be distracting to other students or the instructor.

Cheating

If a student is discovered to be cheating in any manner during an examination, the student will be immediately dismissed, will receive a failing course grade, will not be eligible for any retake or makeup policies, and will be reported to the NC Real Estate Commission [per Commission Rule 58H .0203(h)].
